

Training on the need of good governance to institutionalize federalism

Sambad Samuha Secretariat Office Dang (BASE) has organized a three days training on "the need of good governance to institutionalize federalism" for the Sambad Samuha members from 28th February to 1st March 2020 at New Hotel Indreeni, Nepalgunj. The training was facilitated in circle of the peace. In the training total 34 participants (14 female and 20 male) from Banke, Bardiya, Kailali and Surkhet district Sambad Samuha members were presented. The training was facilitated by Dialogue expert Tulasi Joshi and Governance and appreciative enquire expert Jitram Lama. The interlocutor of Banke Shukrarishi Chaulagai welcomed to all the participants giving a short introduction and Mr. Chhatra Malla distributed flowers to all the participants and requested them to keep in flower vase jointly, he briefed about doing so that we all are from various background, organization and places now we are gathered in one place. Program coordinator Chandra Chaudhari requested to all the participants to give their short introduction along with a special things that introduce about their districts. Mr. Ramesh Bhatrai requested to all the participants to mention their own values that from which you become here in the position or of your quality on Meta card. During the training the participants were set their value cheerful, truth, creativity, continuity, respect, friendly, activism, honestly, discipline, leadership, love, identity, clear speaker, patience and transparency. In the training Anjali Thapa prepared a guide lines. The training was about the need of good governance, Learn about governance policy and its effectiveness, Gaps of different level of government's information about federalism, on the issue of federalism implementation, entry point for the dialogue on governance issues, role of the dialogue to strengthen and institutionalized the federalism and good governance, factors that strengthen federalism. During the training session the training was provided about the dialogue, its process and Importance of Dialogue in the federal government. The inevitability of dialogue in federalism, challenges in the implementation of federalism and tools to reduce it, tips for peace building, criteria of the dialogue, fix mind set and flow mind sets, the concept of federalism developed in Nepal and the interrelationship of union, state and local level managements for the local executive, legislature and economic affairs system and coordination and co-operation of local level work duties and rights, mobilization and management of public finance and the financial jurisdiction and internal resources of local government, localization and implementation of local level development priorities and sustainable development goals, question of inequality and Strategy Corruption Concepts Index 2019, The situation of corruption in Nepal concept of good governance, institutional good governance, promoting methods of good governance and promoting virtue, accountability and Criteria of minimum standards of good governance and capacity for self-governance. The training was facilitated in brain storming, group work, power point presentation in participatory method.

friendly, activism, honestly, discipline, leadership, love, identity, clear speaker, patience and transparency. In the training Anjali Thapa prepared a guide lines. The training was about the need of good governance, Learn about governance policy and its effectiveness, Gaps of different level of government's information about federalism, on the issue of federalism implementation, entry point for the dialogue on governance issues, role of the dialogue to strengthen and institutionalized the federalism and good governance, factors that strengthen federalism. During the training session the training was provided about the dialogue, its process and Importance of Dialogue in the federal government. The inevitability of dialogue in federalism, challenges in the implementation of federalism and tools to reduce it, tips for peace building, criteria of the dialogue, fix mind set and flow mind sets, the concept of federalism developed in Nepal and the interrelationship of union, state and local level managements for the local executive, legislature and economic affairs system and coordination and co-operation of local level work duties and rights, mobilization and management of public finance and the financial jurisdiction and internal resources of local government, localization and implementation of local level development priorities and sustainable development goals, question of inequality and Strategy Corruption Concepts Index 2019, The situation of corruption in Nepal concept of good governance, institutional good governance, promoting methods of good governance and promoting virtue, accountability and Criteria of minimum standards of good governance and capacity for self-governance. The training was facilitated in brain storming, group work, power point presentation in participatory method.

